Over the Back Fence

By Irene King

Firm steps crossed the floor to the accompaniment of a whistled tune and the door was opened by a cheery, white-haired man. "Wait just a minute," he said. "I have to get my wife. She's out picking pecans." Mrs. George W. Parsley Market and Parsley Streets were then ready to be interviewed about their 60th wedding anniversary. "Yes, sir," Mrs. Parsley said as she settled on the sofa. "Sixty years and he's my second husband."

It wasn't because young Parsley hadn't had first chance, about 65 years ago, for he and little Mary Elizabeth Scovell knew each other since babyhood. They went to school together in the old days when Pascagoula was nine-tenths woods and swamps. But he just hadn't "paid any attention" to her until after she was a young widow. "He had other girls," she said. "Well," he broke in, "I was working in Moss Point with Wes Terrell and he said he was going down to see the young widow and so I went along and when I saw her I asked her if she was figuring on getting married again and she said yes and so I asked her to let me be her fellow and that was that."

Lizzie, as she was called by her family, was only 22 when she was left a widow with a year-old son. She'd been 16 when she married a sea captain, Joseph Forbes, who was 40 years older than she.

For four years she went to sea with him—aboard his barkentine the Nora, until she broke up on the reefs off Fortune Island in the West Indies in a storm. Then they sailed on other vessels, he usually as first mate.

The Nora sailed between Pascagoula and Colon and the West Indies carrying lumber and other cargo. On her very first trip they ran into a storm and had to throw off all the deck load.

"Me, too," she said. "I worked right along with the crew, but I sure was seassick."

Thirty-three ships were wrecked in the storm that claimed the Nora but the crew and Lizzie were saved after she jumped from the rigging into a lifeboat way down below with a white Persian cat in her arms.

She saw a lot of sights. She saw the Panama Canal when the French were digging it. She's never had the chance to see it since it's been finished. She's never forgotten those years on the sea.

"I'd go back today if I had the chance," she maintained stoutly.

But a lot of time has lapsed since she and Mr. Parsley were married when she was 22 and he was 24.

Some of her admirers tried to discourage young Parsley from courting the widow, but he wasn't easily scared. At first they tried waiting in the woods near her house and trying to frighten him. But he turned the tables when he drew out a pistol one night and shot over their heads, ending their campaign against him.

Mr. and Mrs. Parsley have seven living children. Mrs. Parsley's son was killed in World War I and one of their children died.

There are Helen Ezell who lives in Bayou Casotte; Harry, Lonnie and Clennon of Pascagoula, Willy of Laurel, Benny of Chickasaw; and Naomi Owens of Bayou Casotte. There are 22 grandchildren, too, and 17 great grandchildren.

Mr. Parsley was a carpenter for many years but now his eyesight is not so good. That limits his activities and while Mrs. Parsley is busy with her hobby of quilting he visits around the neighborhood.

It worries Mrs. Parsley his going around and crossing streets when he doesn't see nor hear so well, but he assures her he's not going to "let any car hit me." In

Family Celebrates Of G. W. Parsleys'

It is rare that two people are able to celebrate their 60th wedding anniversary, and it was a gala occasion when their family gathered Sunday at the home of the George W. Parsleys, 1204 Market, to offer felicitations.

The home was festive with yellow glads and chrysanthemums. A golden wedding cake held position of honor on the flower-decked dining table which also held a punch bowl.

The daughters-in-law assisted in the dining room.

Mrs. Parsley wore a handsome dress of black with a yellow carnation corsage, a gift from the family, all of the immediate members of whom were present with the exception of William Parsley and his wife of Laurel.

busy with her hobby of quilting he visits around the neighborhood.

It worries Mrs. Parsley his going around and crossing streets when he doesn't see nor hear so well, but he assures her he's not going to "let any car hit me." In fact, he thinks he is going to live to be a hundred.

"The world sure isn't like it used to be," Mr. Parsley declared. "Nowadays folks live too fast."

That's about to spoil their favorite summer pastime of sitting on the front porch, too.

Those cars come by here so fast I just told him we were going to have to stop sitting on the porch unless we wanted to end up at the courthouse being witness in some accident," the sprightly octogenarian said.

They agree they'd choose each other again if they had their lives to live over. They'd had a happy 60 years. Of course, there have been ups and downs, tragedies and happinesses.

There was the time Clennon, at 16 months, got lost in the woods that surrounded their first home a few blocks down from where they live now and on the canal or "branch."

For hours people from all over Pascagoula helped them hunt and drag the branch that was full of rain water. Trucks were getting ready to bring volunteer searchers from Moss Point to help when Charlie Ferrer in a round of phone calls trying to locate the child discovered him at the Delmas home.

"J. B. was riding home on his horse and passed Clennon," they remember. "He asked him who he was but of course he couldn't tell them and so he took him home. He was walking through the woods that was just full of cows and calves but they never hurt him."

"When he got to the Delmas house they had some vicious dogs, too, but they didn't hurt him either. In fact, when we finally got him home and put him to bed and then when he woke the next morning the first thing he said was 'Where dogs?'"

They've had their troubles but Mrs. Parsley says that in her old age she doesn't worry anymore—at least not much.

"Everything's gone up so much and I declare I don't see why they let taxes and Christmas come together," she moaned.

Mr. Parsley was instrumental in opening up the street that bears his name. When they were first married they lived by the canal and then a few years later built their present home, he doing most of the carpentry work himself. It was there that their children had their childhood. It was full in those days but it's too big now.

"You see," Mr. Parsley explained with a twinkle, "Just me and the old lady live here. We're old enough to stay by ourselves now."

FIRST BIRTHDAY OF HIGH SCHOOL BAND CELEBRATED

Play Party Given By Band Auxiliary In High School Gym On Tuesday Night.

The first anniversary of the organization of the Pascagoula High School Band was celebrated in the gymnasium on Tuesday night, by a party attended by nearly all the members of the band and a few visitors.

The party was given the young folks by the Band Auxiliary, an organization of the mothers of the band students, headed by Mrs. E. C. Beckham, and was carried out in great style, furnishing lots of fun and hilarity for the guests.

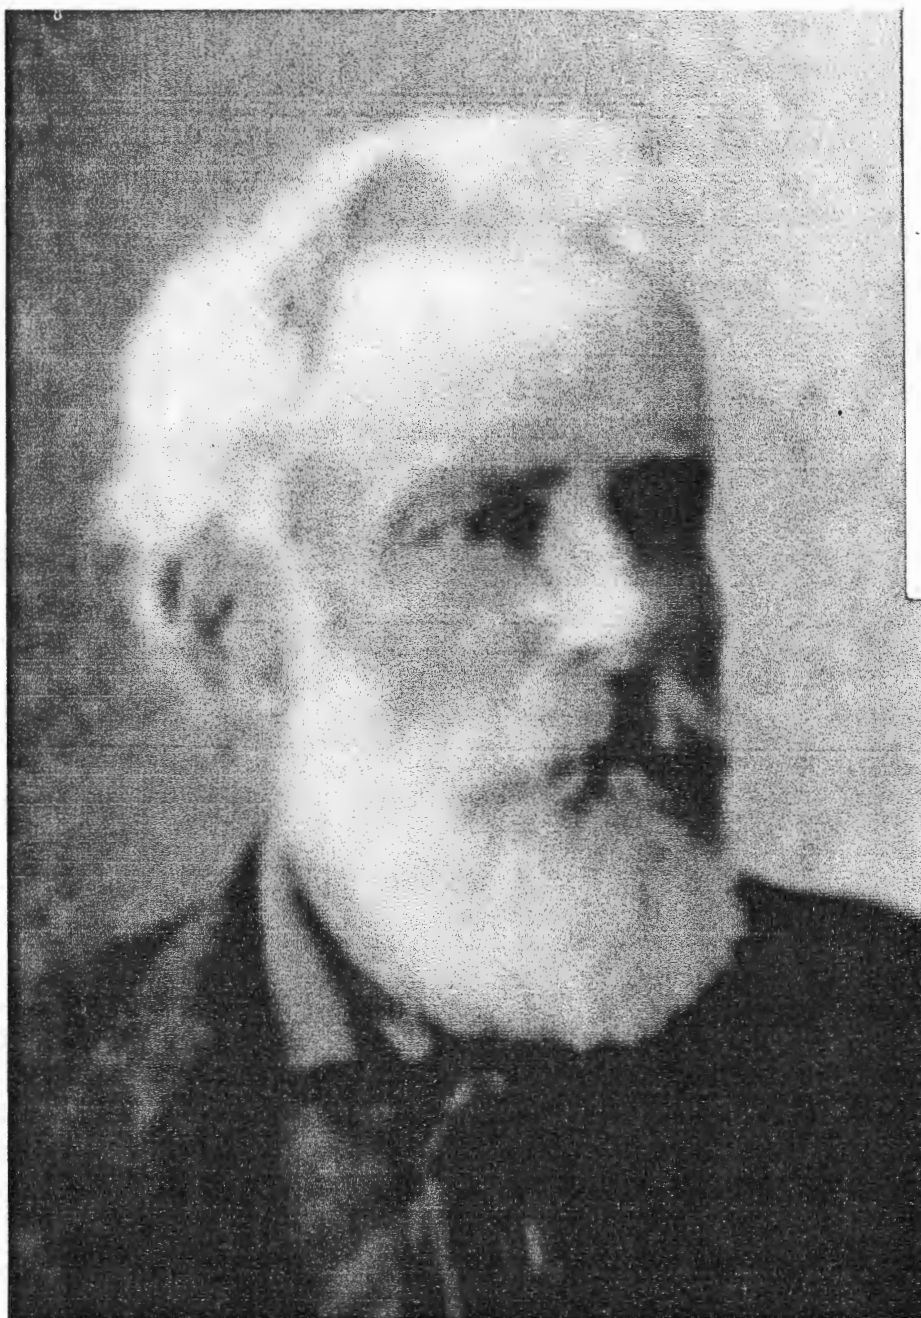

As each member of the band entered the gym he or she was presented with a paper cap of red and blue, the school colors. These caps were made by the members of the Auxiliary, with paper donated by the Southern Kraft Corporation.

J. C. Downing, the band master, had complained that he needed a pair of suspenders, and as he entered the hall he was surrounded by the young folks and Henry Gautier made him take off his coat and fastened on him a pair of red suspenders made of strips of inner tubing. Mr. Downing wore these ornaments (?) the balance of the evening and seemed very proud of them.

All sorts of games and contests were enjoyed by the young folks, with suitable prizes, until late in the evening when the big birthday cake was brought in and displayed on a little table, and the boys and girls were lined up and allowed to gaze on its loveliness. The cake was a large one, weighing fifteen pounds, decorated with icing and blue and red flowers and inscribed, in blue letters, "P. H. S. Band, First Anniversary." The cake was baked and donated by the Webber Bakery.

At request of Mrs. Beckham, W. T. Sparkman, Sr., was called upon to cut the cake, as he was the youngest old person, or the oldest young person present and a staunch friend of the school and its activities.

DEATH OF MRS. MARY A. PARSLEY

(From Moss Point Advertiser)

The life on earth of this dear old lady came to a peaceful end on Thursday, December 22, 1932, at two o'clock in the morning, when she passed to her eternal reward, after 79 years spent on this earth. Her death occurred at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Singleton McInnis, with whom she had made her home for the past eighteen years. The funeral was held on Thursday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, Rev. B. A. Meeks officiating, assisted by Rev. J. F. Brock and Rev. W. H. Lewis, with interment in Greenwood cemetery in South Pascagoula.

Mrs. Parsley was born in Choctaw county, Alabama, on the 16th day of March, 1853. She was married to Mr. Edward Parsley in 1880, and the couple came to Jackson county to live. Following the death of Mr. Parsley in 1914, Mrs. Parsley moved from South Pascagoula to Moss Point, and has made her home with her daughter, Mrs. Singleton McInnis, since then. For the past thirty-five years she has been an invalid, so that her death may be called a blessed relief, though the stilling of her gentle voice brought sadness to the hearts of those who loved her, and those whom she loved.

Throughout all the years of this good lady's illness, she has borne her affliction and suffering with a Christian fortitude and patience that has been a sweet and enduring example to those who so faithfully ministered to her during her illness. While an invalid she was a constant student of the Bible, and was sustained by the promises of God contained therein for strength and guidance.

Deceased is survived by three children, as follows: Mrs. Singleton McInnis of Moss Point, John Parsley of Pascagoula, and W. A. Parsley of Pensacola; also three stepchildren, Mrs. Alice Avera and Messrs. G. W. and Charles Parsley of Pascagoula, and other relatives, to all of whom sympathies are extended by countless friends and acquaintances.

PARSLEY—HARDY 1938

Their friends were greatly surprised to learn of the marriage of Mr. Willie H. Parsley of Pascagoula to Mss Edith Hardy, daughter of Mrs. Julia Hardy of Trenton, Tennessee. The wedding was quietly solemnized at Trenton last Wednesday morning, June 15, with Rev. O. C. Cooper, Baptist pastor of Greenfield, Tenn., officiating.

The couple left the same day for Pascagoula where they will make their home, and where Mr. Parsley is proprietor of a grocery store on Lincoln Avenue

Deadline nears for emergency housing permits

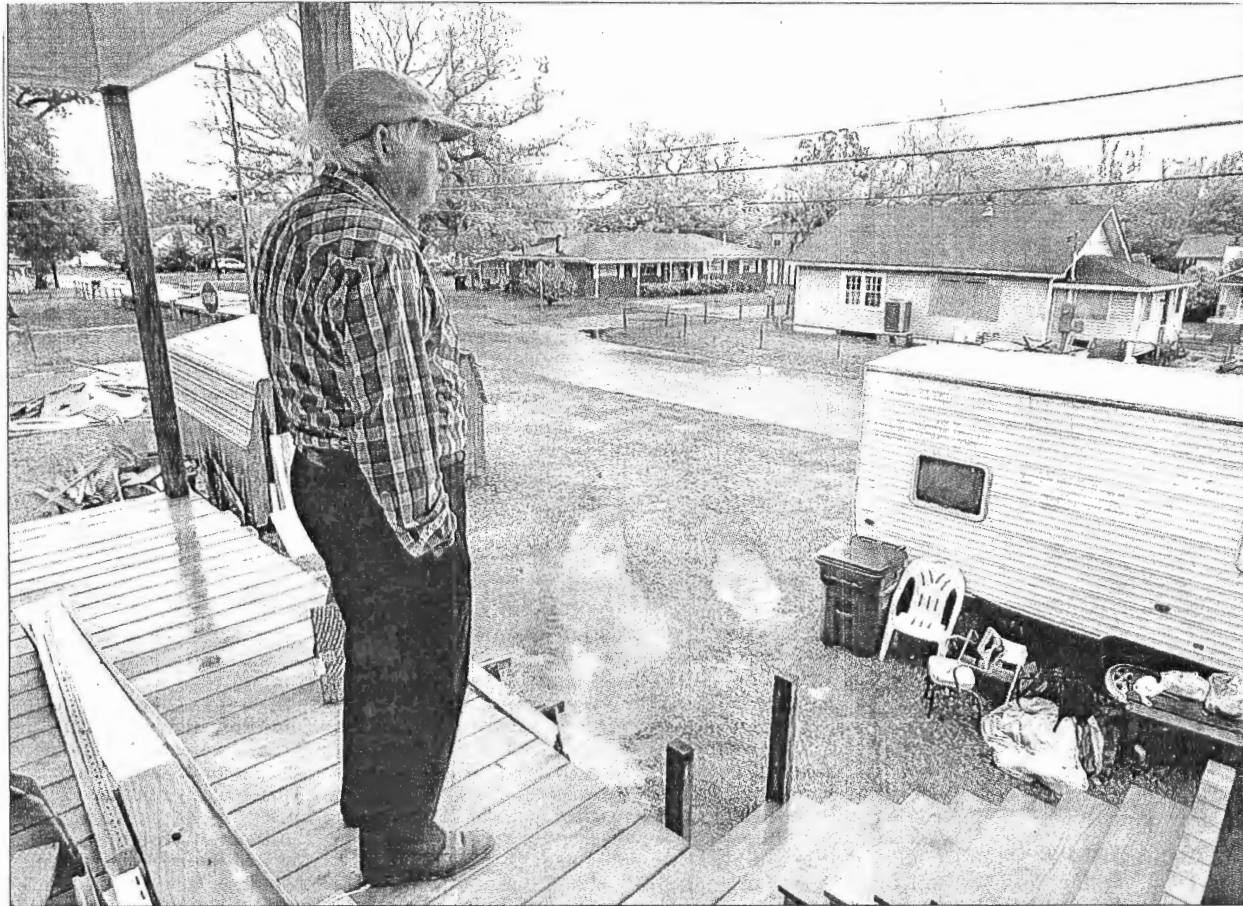

■ To date, only 34
Pascagoula families have applied
for an extension

By BRAD CROCKER
The Mississippi Press

PASCAGOULA — Only 34 families have applied for an extension for emergency housing as the April 20 deadline approaches.

The city is requiring residents living in a mobile home, travel trailer or recreational vehicle as temporary housing to apply for the extensions.

City officials are using the process to gather information to gauge where residents are with rebuilding or finding permanent housing, to learn why residents are still in temporary housing and to determine if the city can help, Pascagoula City Manager Kay Kell said.

Nicole LaCour Young/The Mississippi Press

George Parsley stands on the front porch of his newly built and elevated home. Parsley said he will probably apply for an extension to stay in a trailer on his property since work on the new house is not quite completed.

Early History of Bruce—

First Bruce School Was Called Pilgreen

By Grace Ruth

After the Town of Bruce was incorporated September 22, 1928, the only school then was the Pilgreen school and it was located near where the new First Baptist pastorium now stands. The school's teachers were Mr. Charlie Mitchell Beckett and Miss Daisy Fowler.

Other early schools of this area included Pittsboro, Ellard, Parker-Salem, Banner, Dicky, Hipps County Line, Berry, Sarepta, Box, Reynolds, Lantrip, Providence, Paris, Hawkins, Old Field, Old Town, Camp Ground and Mineral Springs.

School bonds of $20,000 for the Bruce Consolidated School were voted on and passed in 1928. The site for the building brought about some difference of opinion among the people.

The E. L. Bruce company offered to give three acres of land just above where the new library now stands. Mr. Z. R. Hasting Sr. offered to give ten acres of land east of Bruce. Mr. Q.T. Crowson was county superintendent of education, and he asked the state superintendent of education to help decide the matter.

Mr. J. C. Calhoun, supervisor of elementary schools of the state was sent in to look at both locations and he recommended that Mr. Hasting's offer be accepted as he felt the Bruce school would grow fast because consolidation of the aforementioned schools was evident.

The building was constructed and ready for opening in late September, 1929. However, classes actually started upstairs over the E. L. Bruce Company general store for a few weeks in early Sept., 1928.

There were eight teachers and 252 students that year. Mr. A. F. Fugitt was the first superintendent.

Trustees were DeWitt Bennett, W. W. Lamar, and Z. R. Hasting Sr.

By Sept., 1930, two more teachers were added and enrollment increased to 425 students.

The first commencement was held April 28, 1930, with two graduates, Mary Kronz and Jean Bennett. Mr. Joe Cook, president of State Teachers College, Cleveland, delivered the address.

Faculty members of 1929-30 and 1931-32 were Mrs. A. F.

Fugitt, J. I. Rankin, Mrs. C. A. Barnett, W. E. Blaylock, Mrs. Edith Blaylock, Miss Floy Pittman, Mrs. Mattie Bess Thompson, Miss Ann Fleming, Miss Ruth Farr, and Burl Majors.

The first PTA was organized in 1929. Officers were Mrs. J. A. Walls, president; Mrs. De Witt Bennett, vice-pres.; Miss Ruth Farr, secretary; and Mrs. L. S. Lester, treasurer.

Principals of the school following Mr. Fugitt were Q. T. Crowson, A. E. Strain, R. E. Centers, Herbert Green, Z. L. Knight, James E. Cook, Brad White, R. T. Ward, J. R. Newton, Leon Wilson, O. D. Hamblin and Sam Yarbrough.

Our school has had many graduates who have gone out to distinguish themselves in their various fields of endeavor. I plan to write articles from time to time in this newspaper on some of the former graduates.

Revised forecast says 6 hurricanes coming in 20

FORT COLLINS, Colo. (AP) — Hurricane forecaster and Colorado State University professor William Gray is no longer predicting a quieter storm season for 2001.

The nation's pre-eminent forecaster updated his forecast on Thursday to include 10 named storms, six hurricanes and two intense hurricanes from June 1 to Oct. 30, with a good chance that a hurricane will hit the U.S. coastline.

"In general, the more active the seasons are, the greater landfall probability there is," Gray said.

Gray's previous report, made in December, had one less tropical storm and one less hurricane for a forecast he termed below average. The long-term average from 1950 to 1990 is 9.3 named storms, 5.8 hurricanes and 2.2 major hurricanes per year.

Gray's team typically issues forecasts four times a year.

There is a 65 percent chance a hurricane will hit the U.S. coast in 2001, Gray said. The average for the century is 52 percent. The Gulf Coast has a 37 percent chance of getting hit, compared with 30 percent for the cent-

Gray said his team

storm season.

he Living Room

Here we were in the Living Room,
All of our loving group together,
And the glow of the wood-fire's warm perfume
Battled the chill of the outer weather,
And then, with a sleepy sigh, you said,
"Good night, dear ones, I'm going to bed."

Why did there fall such a sense of gloom?
Why did we sob at the thought of sleep?
When one goes out of the Living Room,
Must all the rest of the family weep?
When the work is done and the day is sped,
Is it not time for the restful bed?

Because you are gone from the warmth and light
And stepped aside from the fire-lit glow,
Because you have kissed us all good night,
Why must we sorrow and murmur so?
Why do we call the couch a tomb
Beyond the door of the Living Room?

wenty Third Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

he Love That Never Lets Go

O Love that will not let me go,
I rest my weary soul in Thee;
I give Thee back the life I owe,
That in Thine ocean depths its flow
May richer, fuller be.

O Light that followest all my way,
I yield my flickering torch to Thee;
My heart restores its borrowed ray,
That in Thy sunshine's blaze its day
May brighter, fairer be.

O Joy that seekest me through pain,
I cannot close my heart to Thee;
I trace the rainbow through the rain,
And feel the promise is not vain
That morn shall tearless be.

O Cross that liftest up my head,
I dare not ask to fly from Thee;
I lay in dust, life's glory dead,
And from the ground there blossoms red
Life that shall endless be.

Nearer, my God, to Thee,
Nearer to Thee!

Thou Who Dry'st The Mourner's Tear

O Thou who dry'st the mourner's tear!
How dark this world would be,
If, when deceived and wounded here,
We could not fly to Thee.
The friends, who in our sunshine live,
When winter comes are flown:
And he, who has but tears to give,
Must weep those tears alone.
But Thou wilt heal that broken heart,
Which, like the plants that throw
Their fragrance from the wounded part,
Breathes sweetness out of woe.

When joy no longer soothes or cheers,
And e'en the hope that threw
A moment's sparkle o'er our tears,
Is dimm'd and vanish'd too!
Oh! who would bear life's stormy doom,
Did not thy wing of love
Come, brightly wafting through the gloom
Our peace-branch from above?
Then sorrow, touch'd by Thee, grows bright
With more than rapture's ray;
As darkness shows us world of light
We never saw by day!

She grew into beautiful womanhood and won numerous friends and acquaintances by her amiable and gentle traits of character. The remains were brought to the home of her sister, Mrs. John C. ### Eddy Parsley

Eddy Parsley is a professional photographer who has owned his own studio for about 20 years. He picked up his father's hobby and took it to a professional level. In all those years Parsley has owned many types of cameras, now coming into the digital age with a Nikon D200 after getting rid of all of his traditional photo processing equipment. Parsley photographs everything from weddings to little league including special events and portraits. Asked what he does in his free time, the small business owner replied, "I don't know if I remember what to do when I'm not working. When you love what you do and do it all the time, you forget how to have fun other ways." Parsley said his favorite thing to photograph is a well-planned, beautifully designed wedding with attention to detail. "When a wedding is well done it gives me an opportunity to be more creative," he said.

GALLOWAY

Graves

Two Galloway graves are located behind the Red Hill Church and Cemetery on Old River Road in West Jackson County. Buried there are Abram 'Abe' Galloway and his wife Mary Jane Galloway. They were both born in North Carolina and were slaves when they moved to Jackson County, Mississippi with the white families who owned them. In the Jackson County, MS 1880 Census, Abram is age 52 and his wife Mary Jane or Mary June is age 47. Their death dates are unknown. Rev. Jeff Havens took Rachel Galloway, a daughter, to Scranton and sent her back to the old home in NC by train. Each grave had a cup and saucer placed thereon and one cup and saucer is still there. Info from Havens Fletcher and Linda Ellis and Jennivee Kelley. See township map on page 17

MACHPELAH

Machpelah Cemetery is located on Machpelah Road in the City of Pascagoula. At the time of its establishment the cemetery was in the county halfway between Moss Point & Pascagoula. On February 24, 1890, the Machpelah Cemetery Association was formed and administered the operation and upkeep of the cemetery until 1977 when the City of Pascagoula became custodian.

Democrat-Star, April 25, 1890

The Pascagoula Cemetery Association has located the new Cemetery near the Telephone road, on the east side of the road, about half way between Moss Point and Saranton, and the Board of Control have given it the name of Machpelah. As to the name non-bible readers are curious to know its origin. The explanation is briefly this:

When Abraham was in Hebron, in the land of Canaan, his wife Sarah died at the age of 120 years. Abraham asked of the sons of Heth a place to bury her. They answered him, "Hear us, my Lord; thou art a mighty prince among us. In the choice of our sepulchres bury thy dead; none of us shall withhold from thee a sepulchre, but that thou mayest bury thy dead." Abraham, thereupon, chose the cave of Machpelah, and he paid for it four hundred shekels of silver, and it was made sure unto him, "and all the trees that were in the field and that were in the borders around about," and there he buried Sarah. Afterward Abraham, Isaac, Rebekah, his wife and Leah were buried there.

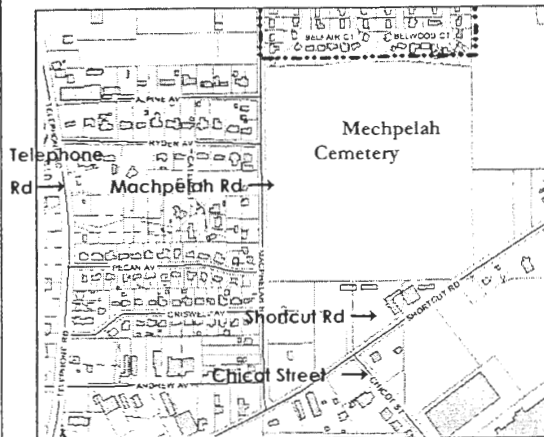

The original officers and shareholders were as follows: John Hill, President; H. B. Everett, Secretary; F. H. Lewis Treasurer.

The charter members were: Capt. G. A. R. Lawrence, Dr. W. D. Bragg, J. A. Blumer, W. Denny, L. N. Dantzler, Capt. H. Colle, Capt. C. T. Irving, J. W. Stewart, C. M. Alley, George H. Huggins, George Frentz, James Smith, H. B. Everett, F. H. Lewis, P. K. Mayers, B. R. Pickett, John Hill, Burton Goode, and J. L. Wiggins.

Tombstone inscriptions were transcribed by students from Our Lady of Victories School (Resurrection) under the guidance of Sister Aline and Melbaleen J. Lewis. This survey is located in Requiem: Vol II, Jackson County Cemetery Records. Harry H. McDonald, Sr., Ray Parish and Betty Rodgers updated tombstone inscriptions in December 1992 and January 1993.

Some unmarked graves have been identified from obituaries, death records and local family histories. Harry H. McDonald, Sr., Katie Belle Steen, Betty Clark Rodgers and Else Martin conducted this research. Many gravesites remain unknown; however, original lot owners have been identified. Sherry Owens and Else Martin collected the latest updates. A cemetery may have existed before the Association was organized.

There is also a section in this cemetery known as "Indigent Burials", most of which are unmarked and unknown.

GRIFFIN

City of Moss Point
West End of Dantzler Street

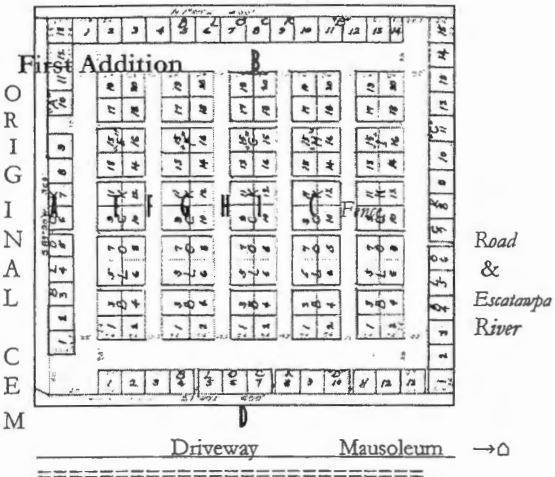

Griffin Cemetery tombstone inscriptions were compiled in January 1966 by the Church of Christ of Latter Day Saints for Requiem: Vol. I. This cemetery is located in Moss Point, Section 10, T7S-R6W. Harry H. McDonald, Sr. updated the inscriptions on December 15, 1991, March 27, 1999. John & Else Martin did updates in 2005.

It is possible that this cemetery was used by the first Cumbest and Ely families for family burials and for the burial of the early Bradford and other pioneer families that resided in the area of Griffin Point. There is an indication of graves in the old Bradford plot, which are unmarked. This land, in the 1720's and later, is believed to be the early habitation of French families named Lavergne, LaMotte and Denis.

Some of those early residents may be buried in this area or at the de la Pointe-Krebs Cemetery.

State Accidents Are Fatal To Six

By United Press International
Weekend accidents claimed six lives in Mississippi, including five who died on state highways and a teen-ager accidentally shot during a hunting trip.

Two Yazoo City residents — William Harold Barnes, about 40, and 5-year-old Patsy Jo Landrum—were killed in a head-on collision Sunday night just south of Yazoo City.

The girl's grandmother, Mrs. Benjamin White, was admitted to a Jackson hospital in critical condition. Officers said Barnes and Mrs. White were driving the two cars.

Almost identical accidents near Jackson Sunday morning killed two men who apparently fell asleep while driving.

William Marvin Rigby, 27, of Madison, was killed when his car smashed into a bridge and overturned in a creek on U.S. 51 just north of Jackson.

Daniel J. Miley, 22, of White Oak in Smith County, was killed 30 miles away and two hours later, when his car struck a bridge and rolled into a creek on Mississippi 18.

A Columbia Negro, Early Morris, 65, died Sunday of injuries received in a hit-and-run accident late Saturday night in Columbia.

The hunting victim was Joseph J. Martin, 17, a senior at Yazoo City High School. Officers said he was shot by his own gun Saturday, when he tripped and the weapon discharged.

Another Mississippian was killed in an out-of-state mishap. Samuel J. Jones, 19, of Aberdeen, died in a one-car accident Saturday in Memphis, two days before he was to enroll at Memphis State University.
